

An aerial view of San Francisco at dusk. The city's dense, multi-story buildings are illuminated with warm interior lights, creating a glowing effect against the twilight sky. In the background, the San Francisco Bay is visible, with the Golden Gate Bridge and distant hills. The prominent Coit Tower stands on a hill in the upper right, its light glowing. The overall atmosphere is serene and urban.

Canna Club

A Cannabis Boutique in North Beach

Who we are

Henry Chan has worked in the cannabis industry since 2009, initially cultivating cannabis for medical cannabis storefront collectives in San Francisco and gained experience working at BASA Collective, a licensed cannabis Micro-business as an operation manager for cultivation and delivery departments.

Stella Jelincic is a first-generation immigrant and a cannabis business professional, who has worked building legal medical and recreational cannabis industries across California, at both Eaze and Flower Company. She is CannaClub's community liaison and general manager.

Who we are

Arthur Do is an investor and entrepreneur who has created high tech businesses employing hundreds of Bay Area residents. He is actively involved in mentoring and investing in the next generation of innovators at UC Berkeley Skydeck.

Sarah Shrader is a cannabis advocate. She was on the board of the San Francisco cannabis task force from 2015-2018. She has worked at Oaksterdam as an educator, advocating for cannabis laws & patients rights. Currently, she is working as a cannabis consultant specialized in city & state compliance.

Mission Statement

CannaClub is an equity-owned cannabis boutique seeking authorization to operate at 899 Columbus Street, located at the corner triangle of Greenwich & Lombard, in the historic North Beach neighborhood of San Francisco.

We look forward to serving the community and want to offer the following opportunities to get to know us.

Transforming 899 Columbus Street
