C. COMMISSION MATTERS

3. President’s Report and Announcements

President Hyland:
I believe Mr. Joslin was intending to be on the hearing today so maybe he just got tied up in a meeting and will be here shortly. I know that the commissioners have been notified and I was hoping that he could speak a little. He will be leaving the Planning department. I believe this week is his last week in the office. And I just wanted to thank him for his service. He has been with us for 8 years. He has done an amazing job in many fronts. Two of them was Urban Design Guidelines as well as the Residential Design Guidelines. In both of those processes, he significantly improved the community outreach and the engagement with our design community which was very much appreciated by the design community and the small projects [inaudible] in San Francisco. For our commission, he has helped advocate for the Citywide Survey and that is now moving forward. We very much appreciate that. And probably more importantly, he has really supported us in our Cultural Heritage Programs and all those programs that enable to launch during his tenure. So, we want to thank him for that and wish him all the best.

And if he does end up showing up, I think he might have a word to say. So, if we can come back when he’s able to join us.

Jonas P. Ionin, Commission Secretary:
He actually just joined us from another meeting. And so, we might give him the opportunity to speak. Apparently, his video is not working but – Jeff are you with us?

Christine L. Silva:
Jonas, this is Christine. Can you pull him in as a panelist from the attendee list please?

Jonas P. Ionin, Commission Secretary:
Oh I see him, yes.
Jeff Joslin:
Thank you so much commissioner Hyland and Commissioners. And I will take a minute if that’s alright. No, no need to start the 3-minute timer, it will just be a minute.

I am truly grateful for this time I’ve had at the Department and for working with and supporting the Historic Preservation Commission. As I wrote all of you, the opportunity to support San Francisco’s preservation efforts was the primary reason for my relocating here eight years ago. John Rahaim’s [inaudible] offer was great but with conversations with some of your predecessors as well as Mike Buhler and [inaudible]. At that time, preservation consisted of a team of six planners and one manager entirely embedded in Current Planning.

Today, Preservation has four managers and a staff of [inaudible] two dozen. Their work now interweaves to the entire need of the Commission’s staffing of the Division and the Department. Expectations in the preservation staff have been higher than today. As a result of the commissioners’ support and advocacy the City has never had a staff with more [inaudible] skilled, passionate yet fully grounded [inaudible]. In the meantime, their and your work has continuously advancing new approaches in new best practices for elevating Preservation’s contributions. Not just here but across the country and beyond.

As one example, this was never more apparent than when the Department recently hosted the National Trust conference here. Placed with a range of [inaudible] by various members of our Preservation team. That focused on cultural and intangible resources largely inspired by our pioneering work here resulted in a diverse gathering unprecedented at such time. The time fundamentally and meaningfully changed the base purpose and inclusivity of Preservation. I’m grateful to have had the opportunity to be featured in some small way to these efforts and to help support the commission and the staff along the way.

I do wish you all the best as you carry this work forward and I will miss you all terribly. Thank you.

Jonas P. Ionin, Commission Secretary:
Thank you, Jeff. It was a pleasure working with you.

4. Consideration of Adoption:
   • Draft Minutes for July 15, 2020

SPEAKERS: None
ACTION: Adopted as Amended
AYES: Black, Foley, Johns, Pearlman, So, Matsuda, Hyland

5. Commission Comments & Questions

President Hyland:
I have a disclosure which I will repeat again for item 11 and 12, I believe. I have a tangential relationship with UCSF [inaudible] – not creating any conflict of interest on either of these two agenda items. But I have worked for them, they have been a client of mine over the years. And so, I just need to let that be known [inaudible].

Secondly, for staff, I wanted to, for the record, request that we add the Golden Gate Valley Library landmark project to our work program. And that staff can just speak to it a little bit more in a general sense of when we might think it might fold into our program and when we might hear of an update on the overall program. Marcelle, if you are able to just give us a brief update.

Marcelle Boudreaux:
Related to the Golden Gate Valley landmark, I’m in communication with the library to get that up to speed. They have currently indicated that just due to operational challenges with COVID that they need a little more time to just get up to speed.

The Carnegie Library were initiated several years ago. They are fifth in the city. They were initiated for landmarking. Six had been landmarked and this one has not after some seismic retrofitting. So, the department is absolutely aware of this and also need a copy of the draft prepared by a member of the public. So, this one is on our radar. We think in a few months, possibly early March 2021, the library will be able to have some, kind of just basic interpretation on this. As far as the Landmark Work Program, this is something that the staff had been analyzing and reviewing. We have some staff capacity concerns during the COVID times. So, due to some community sponsored landmark designation [inaudible], the staff had been occupied with task at hand but it is something that we started regrouping on just last week. And we are meeting to come to the commission [inaudible] to identify some priorities.

Before we go forward, we are doing a little bit of some background research related to existing landmarks, taking a look at the lens of the Racial and Social Equity work plan. So, that is something that I’ll have a better idea of timing next week. So at the next - - if not at the next HPC hearing I can get an update on that date when we’re planning to return.

President Hyland:
Great thank you, very helpful.

UCSF COMPREHENSIVE PARNASSUS HEIGHTS PLAN – approximately 107-acre area of San Francisco within the Inner Sunset neighborhood. Multiple Assessor’s Blocks and Lots (Districts 5 and 7) – Review and Comment on the Draft Environmental Impact Report. The DEIR evaluates UCSF’s Comprehensive Parnassus Heights Plan (CPHP). The CPHP proposes to amend UCSF’s 2014 Long Range Development Plan (LRDP) in order to establish a long-term framework for development of the Parnassus Heights campus over the next 30 years. The CPHP would result in public space, infrastructure, and transportation improvements and would provide for the development of approximately 2.9 million gross square feet of new building space at the Parnassus Heights campus. Construction projects envisioned by the CPHP include, but are not limited to, a new arrival and circulation space connecting Irving Street and Parnassus Avenue (the Irving Street Arrival); a new Research and Academic Building (RAB) on the current site of UC Hall; the construction of a new hospital; a pedestrian bridge above and a tunnel below Parnassus Avenue; new student and staff housing buildings; new multi-use towers; a new hotel; a new childcare facility; and various infrastructure, transportation, and open space improvements. To accommodate these projects, the CPHP proposes demolishing a number of buildings, several of which are identified or presumed historic resources. The CPHP is envisioned to be completed by horizon year 2050; an “Initial Phase” of the plan—which includes construction of the new Irving Street Arrival, the RAB, and other projects—is anticipated to be completed by approximately 2030.

Preliminary Recommendation: Review and Comment
