Business Description

In 1990, after immigrating from South Korea, working as a tailor for several dry cleaners in San Francisco, and even opening a small alteration and dry cleaning business on California Street, Mu Ung Yi took ownership of Fanta Cleaners Inc. with his daughter and son. Fanta Cleaners Inc. is a local, family-owned business that provides dry cleaning, laundry, and alteration services to the San Francisco community. Fanta Cleaners Inc. was believed to have been founded by a person of Chinese descent in the early 1980s with their original Fanta Deluxe Cleaners location (1564 Bush Street). The business was sold in 1983, sold again in 1988, and sold a final time in 1990 to its current owners, the Yi-Park family.

Fanta Cleaners Inc. has grown and currently has two locations. In 2003, Young Park, Mu Ung Yi's daughter, established another Fanta Deluxe Cleaners on 640 4th Street. This South of Market (SoMa) location is located along a few major MUNI lines, making it a convenient location for commuters to drop off and pick up their goods. In 2005, they added another location on 2943 Baker Street. The Baker Street location was aptly renamed Clover Green Cleaners to indicate the business' dedication to environment-friendly service. Fanta Cleaners Inc. serves commuters as well as local residents, hotels, and apartments. They have even helped individuals who have fallen on hard times. The original storefront on 1564 Bush Street closed in 2018, with the business owners citing operation complications due to nearby construction.

The business's primary location at 650 4th Street is a Category A (Historic Resource Present) structure on the southwest side of 4th Street between Bluxome and Oak streets in the SoMa neighborhood. It is within the Central SoMa Mixed Use-Office Zoning District and a 130-CS Height and Bulk District. It is also within the Fringe Financial and Central SoMa Special Use District. 650 4th was included in several survey areas.

Fanta Cleaners Inc. currently maintains one additional location in the Marina neighborhood at 2943 Baker Street. This location is a Category B ("unknown historic resource") within the NC-2 (Neighborhood Commercial, Small Scale) Zoning District and a 40-X Height and Bulk District. It's also within the Scenic Streets Special Sign District.

FANTA CLEANERS

Section 4: Written Historical Narrative

CRITERION 1

a. Provide a short history of the business from the date the business opened in San Francisco to the present day, including the ownership history. For businesses with multiple locations, include the history of the original location in San Francisco (including whether it was the business's founding and or headquartered location) and the opening dates and locations of all other locations.

Fanta Cleaners Inc. was established in the 1980s at 1564 Bush Street and currently operates two locations under two different fictitious business names: Fanta Deluxe Cleaners at 650 4th Street and Clover Green Cleaners at 2943 Baker Street. The original location at 1564 Bush Street, which was also called Fanta Deluxe Cleaners, closed in 2018 due to construction on Van Ness Avenue by the San Francisco Municipal Transportation Agency (SFMTA).

Fanta Cleaners Inc. was established at 1564 Bush Street sometime in the 1980s. Not much is known about the original owners of Fanta Cleaners. It is believed the business was founded in the early 1980s by a person of Chinese descent. The business cannot be found in the 1982 or earlier San Francisco business directories, so it was possibly established in 1983. The business was sold circa 1983 to a person of Korean descent. It was sold again in 1988 to an owner named Raymond who was of Nicaraguan descent. The business sold one more time in 1990 to the current owners, the Yi-Park family, including Mu Ung Yi (father), Young Park (daughter, née Young Yi), Pong Yi (son); and Jae H. Park (Young Park's husband).

The Yi-Park family had immigrated to the United States a few years before buying the business. In 1986, Mu Ung Yi and his wife came to the United States to visit family. They ended up moving to the United States, and Mu Ung Yi found a job as a tailor so he can help make clothes for his grandkids but also to support his wife with their new life in the United States. After several years working as a tailor for several dry cleaners in San Francisco, he opened a small alteration and dry clean business circa 1989 on California Street called Pro Alterations. Through his hard work, he was able to bring his children – Young Park and Pong Yi – from South Korea to San Francisco in 1990.

Daughter Young Park helped him run the store while raising her two children in the Inner Richmond. During this time, Mu Ung Yi continued to help neighbors in his community of Japantown, where families needed help with better fitted clothes for their office jobs or family events.

In 1990, Mu Ung Yi, Young Park, and Pong Yi took over ownership of Fanta Deluxe Cleaners on 1564 Bush Street. Due to Mu Ung Yi's age, Young Park managed the business, and Pong Yi helped at the cleaners by providing dry cleaning and custom alterations. Although dry cleaning was popular with the financial and tech workers in San Francisco, Fanta focused primarily on alterations and laundry for local businesses.

Around 2000, Pong Yi purchased a dry-cleaning business in South San Francisco, leaving ownership of Fanta Cleaners to his sister and father. It was a challenging time for Young Park and Mu Ung Yi, because the two of them worked the counter, ironed, delivered clothes, and did mechanical work at the business to keep Fanta Cleaners afloat. In 2001, Young Park married Jae H. Park, and he became part owner of the business.

In October 2003, Young Park opened a new location of Fanta Deluxe Cleaners at 650 4th Street in the South of Market district. Opening a location on in SoMa was a desire to be a part of the revitalization effort in this developing neighborhood. The business is located along a few major Muni lines and offers a drop off/pick up location for people commuting to work using public transit.

In July 2005, Fanta Cleaners Inc. took over a dry-cleaning facility at 2943 Baker Street in the Marina district called Excellent Cleaners. The business was renamed Clover Green Cleaners to indicate a cleaner, more environment-friendly way to give people the same great service. Young Park invested in several machines to help the business stay compliant with the changing regulations by the Department of Health. Mu Ung Yi regularly took the bus to 2943 Baker Street to provide custom alterations for the new customers served in this location. However, due to his age and deteriorating health, the business was on the verge of losing the ability to offer alteration services. In order to stay true to their core offering and help people look the way they want to with custom-fitted clothes, Fanta Cleaners hired a fashion designer, who to this day still work with the company.

When the Great Recession hit, Fanta Cleaners saw sales decline by more than 50%. The business had to cut costs and keep things lean despite rising rents in hopes that things would return to pre-recession levels. The dry-cleaning industry never recovered. Furthermore, construction of the new Central Subway along 4th Street forced customers to find a more convenient location, and the owners were barely getting by.

Then in 2013, with the tech boom in our beloved city, a venture capital-backed startup called Rinse began marketing and offering customers the ability to get a full-service option for their dry cleaning without ever stopping at a brick and mortar location. Rinse is a tech company that doesn't do their own cleaning but contracts out to dry cleaners, much like Uber with riders and drivers. Fanta Cleaners saw another 25% drop in revenue due to their aggressive marketing, and eventually Fanta was forced to contract with Rinse to stay in business. Fanta Cleaners was breaking even on all laundry services and was now having cashflow issues, which caused the business to get more into debt. Due to Rinse's payment terms, Fanta finally terminated their services with them and did greater outreach to the community. In 2013, Fanta Cleaners brought in an investor, Vivik Khuller, to help fund operations.

In 2018, the store at 1564 Bush Street closed due to negative effects from the construction project on Van Ness Avenue, a massive civic improvement project including Bus Rapid Transit, extensive utility maintenance, civic improvements, and safety enhancements. Construction began in October 2016 and is expected to be completed sometime in 2021.

In 2020, the coronavirus pandemic hit, and Fanta Cleaners has been relying on grants and government subsidies to get by. Their landlords have continued to provide some assistance, but the owners are still behind on lease payments and on the verge of eviction.

b. Describe any circumstances that required the business to cease operations in San Francisco for more than six months?

Fanta Cleaners has not ceased operations since it was established until the pandemic in 2020. The business had to comply with stay at home orders and City mandates and continues in 2021 to operate at limited capacity.

c. Is the business a family-owned business? If so, give the generational history of the business.

Since 1990, the business has been the center of the Yi-Park family, which immigrated to the United States from Korea. The business started at Fanta Deluxe Cleaners at 1564 Bush Street, providing dry cleaning services in addition to laundry and alterations. Young Park established Fanta Deluxe Cleaners in 2003 and Clover Green Cleaners in 2005. Ownership of the business has included a father, daughter, son, and daughter's husband. Young Park and Jae H. Park's son, Bryant Park, also works at the business.

d. Describe the ownership history when the business ownership is not the original owner or a family-owned business.

The ownership history of Fanta Cleaners Inc. is as follows:

Fanta Deluxe Cleaners at 1564 Bush Street:

1980s to 1983	Unknown owner of Chinese descent
1983 to 1988	Unknown owner of Korean descent
1988 to 1990:	Raymond (last name unknown) of Nicaraguan decent

2003 to Present:	Young Park
------------------	------------

Clover Green Cleaners at 2943 Baker Street:

e. When the current ownership is not the original owner and has owned the business for less than 30 years, the applicant will need to provide documentation of the existence of the business prior to current ownership to verify it has been in operation for 30+ years. Please use the list of supplemental documents and/or materials as a guide to help demonstrate the existence of the business prior to current ownership.

Documentation of the existence of the business verifying it has been in operation for 30+ years is provided in this Legacy Business Registry application.

f. Note any other special features of the business location, such as, if the property associated with the business is listed on a local, state, or federal historic resources registry.

The historic resource status of the building at 650 4th St, San Francisco, CA 94107 is classified by the Planning Department as Category A, Historic Resource Present with regard to the California Environmental Quality Act.

The historic resource status of the buildings that house the three locations of Fanta Cleaners, Inc. are classified by the Planning Department as follows with regard to the California Environmental Quality Act:

- 1564 Bush Street: Category B, Unknown / Age Eligible.
- 650 4th Street: Category A, Historic Resource Present. The building is contextually important, but does not meet age eligibility requirements to be listed on any registries since it was constructed in 2001.
- 2943 Baker Street: Category B, Unknown / Age Eligible.

CRITERION 2

a. Describe the business's contribution to the history and/or identity of the neighborhood, community or San Francisco.

Fanta Cleaners Inc. has served many different neighborhoods of San Francisco: The Western Addition, Japantown, the Polk Street corridor, and the Tenderloin from the Bush Street location; SoMa, Yerba Buena, Rincon Hill, South Beach, South Park, and Mission Bay from the 4th Street location; and the Marina, Cow Hollow, and the Presidio from the Baker Street location. Fanta Cleaners considers itself a “San Francisco first” business. The owners did not sell out to large tech companies or investors, and they continue to stay open and serve their communities even with financial duress. They’ve had opportunities to move operations out of San Francisco to save costs or to avoid the city’s growing financial dues, but they felt they should pay our dues, and the city will continue to prosper. Fanta Cleaners continues to deliver clothes to local apartment complexes and offices to aid in compliance with COVID restrictions, at least to those who didn’t sign agreements with Rinse or the like. Fanta Cleaners has recently started doing laundry for local hotels for which business came to an abrupt halt due to the pandemic.

b. Is the business (or has been) associated with significant events in the neighborhood, the city, or the business industry?

Fanta Cleaners has been involved with the Dry Cleaning Association and continues to be a contributing member of the industry, even though the industry has suffered tremendous setbacks, especially in tech centers like San Francisco where the dress code may not require dry cleaning or alterations.

c. Has the business ever been referenced in an historical context? Such as in a business trade publication, media, or historical documents?

Fanta Cleaners has not been recently referenced in an historical context. There may be some newspaper articles written about the business, but nothing that has been documented.

d. Is the business associated with a significant or historical person?

No.

e. How does the business demonstrate its commitment to the community?

The Park family serves at the local Salvation Army Korean Church where Young Park helps serve the senior citizens who attend.

f. Provide a description of the community the business serves.

Fanta Cleaners serves the local residents of San Francisco and those who commute into and out of the city taking public transit. Fanta has also helped individuals that have fallen on hard times by providing them with cleaning services. Fanta Cleaners hopes to continue to serve the community if the business can survive the coronavirus pandemic.

g. Is the business associated with a culturally significant building/structure/site/object/interior?

The building at 2943 Baker Street is an attractive Victorian-era building that retains its original decorative features and is an integral part of the local residential community.

h. How would the community be diminished if the business were to be sold, relocated, shut down, etc.?

If the business were to shut down, it would displace four residents of San Francisco who have been here for decades working in the city. It would also prevent a local family-owned business from serving the new generations of residents who would be living in the new planned construction in SoMa. These new residents would then be limited to using the services of venture capital-backed companies that continue to take away the history of our city.

CRITERION 3

a. Describe the business and the essential features that define its character.

Fanta Cleaners Inc. is a family-owned laundry, alterations, and dry-cleaning business. The company provides exceptional customer service.
