GRANT ACTIVITIES

On November 10, 2015, the Department was awarded a grant from the National Park Service (NPS) for the San Francisco Sites of Civil Rights Project. Intended to study the theme of civil rights advancement in San Francisco and shed light on the stories of under-represented communities across the city, the two-year-long grant will allow staff to: prepare three National Register Nominations for properties with multi-racial and ethnic layers and associations: Glide Memorial Methodist Church, Japanese Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA), and the Gran Oriente Filipino Hotel, Residence, and Masonic Temple Complex. In addition, the project included the identification of sites associated with civil rights advances and struggles in San Francisco that were added to the Landmark Designation Work Program in 2016. The last component of the grant project involves the creation of an evaluative framework for sites associated with cultural heritage, which was developed by staff working with student interns hired through the grant.

On August 29, 2017, the Planning Department was awarded a 2017-2018 Certified Local Government (CLG) Grant from the California Office of Historic Preservation for the production of a Chinese American Experience in San Francisco Historic Context Statement. The Chinese American Experience in San Francisco Historic Context Statement (Chinese American context) will address two critical historic preservation needs: 1) several previous efforts to document the Chinatown community in San Francisco have been successful; however, are not comprehensive and do not take into account contributions on a citywide scale, 2) there is currently no framework for evaluating the contributions, traditions, and practices of the Chinese-American Community reflected in the built environment. In preparation for the Citywide Historic Resources Survey, the framework developed through the context statement will allow for the identification of eligible properties in fulfillment of the City's preservation goals and objectives. The Chinese American Historical Society is serving as a community partner for the project and Architectural Resources Group is serving as project administrator. Grant Din is the lead author of the Chinese American Experience in San Francisco Historic Context Statement.

OTHER LANDMARK DESIGNATION WORK PROGRAM ITEMS

Plaque Program. The Department received 39 applications for a historic landmark plaque. During the first phase of this pilot program, 25 individual landmark property owners will receive plaques. The remaining applicants have been placed on a waiting list to receive a plaque in the future as funding allows.

Eight Administrative Certificate of Appropriateness applications were filed in 2017-2018 to install a historic landmark plaque. Recent Planning Code amendments will no longer require a landmark property owner to file an Administrative Certificate of Appropriateness application to install a plaque. Landmark property owners are now able to obtain a sign permit over-the-counter to install a plaque. Department staff will continue to work with landmark property owners to draft the text for the plaque and coordinate plaque manufacture with the foundry.

The following list summarizes plaques installed or planned for installation to date:

PERFORMANCE MEASURES

This report also includes recently adopted performance measures to track Article 10 Landmark designations and Article 11 Changes of Designation. The goal of the following performance measures, along with other process-based improvements, is to present a clearer picture of the Department's work on the HPC's Landmark Designation Work Program.

A Performance Measures Report is not attached to this document. Due to the transition to the Department's new PPTS project tracking system, an accurate report could not be created. Past data cannot be accounted for, but Survey Team staff continues to work with the Finance team to develop a method for tracking this information for the current quarter.

1. Prepare and process individual Article 10 Landmark designations (from report to case closure) within staff 150 hours.

When this measure was established, the previous five individual Article 10 designations (Nos. 261-266) were within a range of 114 to 200 hours from the preparation of the report to the final Board of Supervisors hearing. While each designation is unique, Department preservation staff has set a goal to complete the average individual designation within 150 hours.

Staff time for the most recent 5 designations was:

- 124 hours for the Arthur H. Coleman Medical Center, 6301 Third Street, Landmark No. 279
- 41 hours for the Phillips Building, 234-246 First Street, Landmark No. 278 (consultant produced)
- 223 hours for New Era Hall, 2117-2123 Market Street, Landmark No. 277
- 60.25 hours for Gaughran House, 2731-2735 Folsom Street, Landmark No. 276, (consultant produced)
- 99.75 hours for Third Baptist Church Complex, 1399 McAllister Street, Landmark No. 275
- 76.75 hours for El Rey Theater, 1970 Ocean Avenue, Landmark No. 274 (consultant produced)
- 37 hours for the V.C. Morris Gift Shop, 140 Maiden Lane, Landmark No. 72, (amendment to existing designation)

2. Provide comments to the applicant regarding the application's completeness and/or schedule HPC initiation hearings for all community/property-owner sponsored Landmark Designation Reports within 30 calendar days of receipt.

The Department will track performance and response time with owners and community members that submit nominations outside of the HPC's Work Program. The goal is to provide the HPC and the public with a timely response regarding requests for nomination submitted by the public. Tracking information will be included in the Performance Measures Report.

No new community-sponsored landmark designation applications were brought to the HPC during the reporting quarter.

Site of the Compton's Cafeteria Uprising

101 Taylor Street

District 6

Article 10 Landmark Designation

Staff: Frances McMillen

Significance

Significant as the site of the Compton's Cafeteria uprising, the first major organized uprising that gained national attention for issues of police harassment against the transgender community. During a period when cross-dressing was illegal, the Tenderloin was considered a relatively safe space for transgender women, who often turned to prostitution for income. One night in August 1966, when Compton's management called the police, the community retaliated. The event is one of the most formative events in the early, pre-Stonewall, movement for LGBTQ rights. The property is currently a contributor to the Uptown Tenderloin National Register Historic District

AARON PESKIN

December 7, 2018

Historic Preservation Commission
1650 Mission Street, Suite 400
San Francisco, CA 94103
Attn: Tim Frye, Historic Preservation Officer

RE: Request to Include North Beach Landmark District in 2019 Work Plan

Dear Mr. Frye,

I am writing to formally request the Historic Preservation Commission's support for prioritizing the nomination of North Beach as a Landmark District in its 2019 work plan.

I thank you and the members of the Preservation staff for reviewing the revised and updated North Beach Historic Context Statement submitted to the Department on February 15, 2018. Researched and prepared by architectural historian Michael Corbett, and funded through the Northeast San Francisco Conservancy, it provides the standards for evaluating and protecting the architectural, historic, and cultural resources of North Beach, both individually and as a part of a landmark district.

North Beach is a neighborhood whose historic significance goes well beyond its architecture and building typology. From the early influx of Italian immigrants, who quickly rebuilt the neighborhood after the 1906 Earthquake and Fire, to its cultural identity as the epicenter of the Beat movement and San Francisco's literary renaissance, as well as its association with early gay, lesbian, bisexual, transgender and queer (LGBTQ) history in San Francisco, North Beach has been shaped by many San Franciscans of distinction and historical significance. The neighborhood's story is not just in its unique buildings, but also in its alleyways and staircases, entertainment venues, and Prohibition era basements of forgotten speakeasies. Mapped as one of the original three public squares in 1847, Washington Square (Landmark #226) has served as the neighborhood's center for almost 170 years. In fact, of the three urban parks shown in the 1847 survey, only Washington Square remains intact, and many of its trees have as much historic significance as the surrounding buildings.

The designation of North Beach as a Landmark District is long overdue. Recently the neighborhood has experienced several fires that have highlighted the need to move forward more expeditiously with a plan to add a North Beach local district to Article 10 of the Planning Code. As the city continues to add new neighborhoods in the southeast, and as existing neighborhoods change, it is important that historic neighborhoods like North Beach have a plan for evolving appropriately, as well. The research provided to the Department by Mr. Corbett is a solid foundation to build upon, but the work over the next 12-18 months will require Department support, resources and expertise.

1 of 2

Acknowledging that the Historic Preservation Commission has a full work plan to consider, please accept my formal request for your support in prioritizing the nomination of North Beach as a Landmark District as part of your 2019 work plan. My office has been working closely with the various neighborhood organizations to solicit input on a potential district and we are looking forward to working with the Department and Commission staff to engage an even broader audience. This will be one of my top priorities for 2019, so please let me know how my office can support this exciting effort.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,
