

Japanese YWCA / Issei Women's Building

Top: Young Issei women campaign for a Japanese YWCA building in the 1920s. Generations: A Japanese American Community Portrait (San Francisco: Japanese Cultural and Community Center of Northern California, 2001).
 Bottom: Women in front of Japanese YWCA, 1936 (San Francisco Public Library, History Center).

Both images featured in the Japanese YWCA National Register nomination prepared by Donna Graves

Left: Bayard Rustin, The Places of Bayard Rustin, <https://www.nps.gov/articles/the-places-of-bayard-rustin.htm>

Right: Handout from the first Mattachine Society national convention, held in San Francisco in 1954 (Courtesy GLBT Historical Society)
Featured in the Citywide Historic Context Statement for LGBTQ History in San Francisco by Donna Graves and Shayne Watson

